

Answer Key

Multiple Choice

1. d.
2. a.
3. b.
4. d.
5. c.
6. b.

Short Answer

1. A potion is a liquid medicine. In folklore a potion can be made by a witch, socerer, magician or other special person. If the person is an evil character the potion can be poisonous instead of helpful.
2. Individual response
3. Mustard seeds are extremely small. Gathering a handful of mustard seeds requires many seeds.
4. Individual response
5. The Buddha couldn't bring her son back to life like she wanted. What she really needed was to stop grieving of her loss. He gave her the means to realize she wasn't alone in experiencing grief and loss.
6. Individual response
7. Individual response